FRANCISCO SUÁREZ

Predecessors & Successors

The thought of the Jesuit philosopher, theologian, and jurist Francisco Suárez (1548-1617) is rooted in medieval scholastic philosophy, but his influence reaches into the early modern period. This two-day international conference explores the ways in which Suárez both revives elements of scholasticism, and prefigures modern philosophers such as Descartes, in his metaphysics, epistemology, and philosophy of mind.

MEALS

Coffee and small snacks will be available in Beane Hall throughout the conference. However, conference attendees are responsible for their own meals (unless otherwise informed by organizers).

TRANSPORTATION

All conference locations are within walking distance.

The closest CTA ("El") stop to all conference locations is the Chicago stop on the Red Line (see enclosed Conference Map).

O'Hare Airport: Take CTA Blue Line between O'Hare & downtown ("the Loop"). Blue & Red lines connect at Jackson or Lake stops.

Midway Airport: Take CTA Orange Line between Midway & downtown ("the Loop"). Orange & Red lines connect at State/Lake stop.

Due to traffic congestion & limited parking options, driving is not recommended. However, if driving, consider the following parking recommendations:

- Whitehall Hotel ($65/day)
- City of Chicago's street parking app: <https://parkchicago.com/>
- Another parking app such as SpotHero or ParkWhiz

Rideshares are plentiful in Chicago. We recommend Lyft or Via app.
